

EDUCATION

Stanford Graduate School of Education

M.A., Learning, Design, and Technology

Expected 2017

Tufts University

B.A., summa cum laude, International Literary and Visual Studies / Italian Studies

2013

- Honors Thesis: Mexican Murals and Fascist Frescoes: Cultural Reinvention in 20th-Century Mexico and Italy

University of Bologna, Bologna, Italy (Semester Abroad, Fall 2011)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Clever, San Francisco, CA

Partnerships and Product Management

August 2014 – August 2016

- Expanded data partnerships through business development, technical support, and account management for new and existing partners
- Prepared district-facing product for high-growth back to school season through collaboration with engineering, sales, and customer success teams
- Led cross-team initiative to research, design, and test new feature for helping users manage school-year rollover
- Co-created data matching tool to drive revenue and school count (1st place winner of company-wide hackathon)

de Young Museum, San Francisco, CA

Education Assistant

January 2014 – July 2016

- Designed and co-led art activities inspired by Museum's collection during weekly Doing and Viewing Art program
- Increased family engagement by facilitating small-group gallery viewing activities related to weekly theme

Performing Arts Workshop, San Francisco, CA

New Sector Alliance AmeriCorps Resident in Social Enterprise

September 2013 – July 2014

- Coordinated participation of over 50 students in 2 public performance events through communication with community partners, teaching artists, parents, and school staff
- Created interactive digital timeline to visually represent organization's history in preparation for 50th anniversary
- Aligned stakeholders' interests by scheduling and facilitating monthly Showcase Committee meetings
- Participated in trainings and analyzed case studies on topics including design thinking, change management, and nonprofit finance as part of cohort of emerging social sector leaders

San Diego Museum of Art, San Diego, CA

Carolyn Wolf Intern

June – August 2013

- Introduced children ages 3-12 to printmaking, painting, and collage techniques during weekly Family Drop-In Days
- Researched Museum's portrait collection and wrote wall text for temporary exhibit in interactive education studio

The Welcome Project, Somerville, MA

Youth Program Summer Fellow

June – August 2012

- Created and executed detailed schedule of art activities and field trips for 2-week camp for immigrant youth
- Designed digital storytelling curriculum to facilitate 10 campers' exploration of their cultural backgrounds

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Girls on the Run, San Francisco/San Mateo, CA, Running Buddy

November 2013 – present

- Mentor and run with elementary school girls to foster self-confidence and promote an active lifestyle

Spark, San Francisco, CA, Mentor

January – May 2016

- Collaborated with middle school student on hands-on project to build academic engagement and career skills

The Welcome Project/Tufts ESOL, Somerville, MA, ESL Teacher

February 2012 – May 2013

- Developed and implemented semester-long curriculum to teach English to 6 low-income immigrant parents